Dental Chart May Provide Girl's ID

By J$MES E. REID

He said a dentist who worked was made in Franz Valley to had a normal set of teeth and day for the clothing of the latest mouth, except for the crossbite victim whose body was found position of the lower right first was made in France and the latest mount, and the lower right in the state of the latest mount, and the lower right in the state Theesday of the state the state of the state the state of t died approximately two weeks! diately at $27:2511.

40.

He said her identity is still a mystery and the pathologist has mystery and the pathologist has been usable to determine what caused her deeth.

Dist, Atty. John Hawkes said feet seven inches, with biona dental clarit made of the dish-brown hair 10 to 14 inches young girl's teeth now offers the in length.

A hole in her right car was fee.

Continued on Back Page?

(Continued on Back Page)

Slain Girl

(Continued from Page 1) While the search was being being carefully examined this sheriff's investigators in the

The pathologist estimated the girl died 10 to 14 days prior to discovery of her body. He said sit was impossible to tell if she had been sexually assaulted prior to her death because of the control of rior to her death because one badly decomposed condition peing carefully examined this conducted in Franz Valley, morning to detarmine if it was Sania Ross affice were going torn by brush when she was through the hundreds of missing through the hundreds on flie there to steep embankment where her pick out those with a physical body was found around 8:30 description close to the victim's p.m. Tuesday by a motorcyclist who stopped when he smelled a foul odor.

from other law enforcement from other law enforcement agencies, such as San Francisco where the bodies of four young women have been found stran-ged and induced it that city in recent weeks. Sheriff's Det. Sgt. Erwin (Butch) Carlstedt was expected to return today from Canada to return today from Canada where he questioned Albert Ri-chard Voorhes, 27-year-old ac-cused murderer of Lawrence LeGrand, whose body was found June 7 over a steep cliff north it was learned Voorhes had "passed through" Santa Rosa around July 18, but slieriff's of-ficials said Caristedt reported earlier by phone the suspect re-fused any comment about the other slavings being investigated by Sonoms County auth ties.

ties.

The body of the latest victim was found within four feet of the same spot where the skeletal remains of two Herbert Slater Junior High School students were found Dec. 28.

found Dec. 28.

Maureen Sterling, 12, and Yvonne Weber, 13, disappeared
the evening of Feb. 4 while at the Redwood Empire Ice Arena.
Officials have been unable to delarmine cause of their death.
The Scoret Witness program has offered a $2,500 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the peryear of person repensions restonsible for son or persons responsible the death of the latest vic found off Franz Valley Road. victim A $1,000 reward has been of fered for information about the deaths of the other two girls. Sheriff Striepeke said the latest victim was probably slain by the same person who killed the other girls.