

Hitchhiking SRJC Coed Is Missing

A 20-year-old Santa Rosa Junior College coed has been missing since Tuesday morning when she set out to hitchhike to her classes.

Jeannette Kamahale left her home at 951 Sierra ave. in Cotati at 9:30 a.m., according to her roommate Nora Morales.

Miss Morales said Jeannette usually hitchhiked through Cotati and caught a ride at the freeway on-ramp heading for Santa Rosa.

"She was very stable and very conscientious at school. She wouldn't have missed her classes. She is not at all flighty, she wouldn't just take off without telling anyone," Miss Morales said.

She said when her roommate didn't return home Tuesday she checked her classes at the ju-mor college and learned she didn't show up that morning.

(Continued on Page 6, Col. 1)

Hitchhiking SRJC Coed Is Missing

(Continued from Page 1A)

She reported Jeannette missing to the sheriff's office around midnight Tuesday and an all points bulletin was sent out the following day.

Jeannette is five feet, five inches, 120 pounds, with brown eyes and black hair and was wearing blue denim pants and a dark sweater or blouse and sandals when she left for school Tuesday morning, according to Miss Morales.

Information on the missing girl may be reported to local police agencies or the sheriff's office at 527-2511.